JANNEY CAR COUPLER,-The Atlants, Ga., News gives the following notice of an Alexan-

"The Georgia railroad has adopted the Januey platform and coupler, and this will be put on all passenger cars run by that road. This platform and compler is one of the best in use, and is certainly a life saving invention, as the brake man has no cause to leave the platform to couple his trains. The Pennsylvania railroad and most of the roads East have adopted it, also the Pulluian Steeping Car Co. There is no doubt the Janney platform and coupler will be in use on all southern railroads in a short time. Eight years sup Mr. F. H. J. oney, the inventor of one of the greatest inventions was employed by the Virginia Midland Railroad, with headquarters at Alexandria, Va. After careful study, he had his insention to such perfection that he requested a trial by the road above mentioned. This trial proved perfectly sails factory, but the company was not then in a financial condition to adopt the patent. Mr. E. H. Jamey, the inventor, had not the means to introduce his great invention, so a stock company was formed in Alexandria, Vs., but was lost sight of. Mr. Janney knew he had a bonacza, fought persistently for his rights, and has sue-

PINAFORE LAST NIGHT,-The Templeton Star Addance gave their first appearance for the season at Sarepta Hall, and for once the amusement lovers railed and filled the hill. The audience resertily were much pleased with the performance which, considering the smallness of the stage and the consequent want of room for any display of notice, was good Most of the characters was well supported and although some were snort, no doubt, proceed will in this, as well as in other cases, make perfect.

The "Buttercap" of Aire Vane; "Sir Joseph" of Bunkley; "Coronna" or Kendal; and "Deadeye" Craue, were partien any good. Fay Temp'eton as "Raloh Ruckstraw" did wall, but a misiske was evidently made in casung her for that character. Although she acted finely, the part requires a trade voice, and Faveshould be east as "Buttered po" or "Josephine."

The Jamieson Trial. |Special dispatch to the Gizatte. |

CULPEPER C. H., Aug. 29 -The trial of George W. Jamieson for killing D. M. Ream, was begun on Wednesday, when only two competent persons were found out of the venire of twenty four summoned for that day. From a special venire ordered for to-day of one hundred a jury was empinelled, after calling seventy-fire, as follows: Elear Wayland Jis, Shadrach, R. M. Apperson, Erans S. Brown, S. Naylor, J. Stringfellow, F. M. Rudasil, J. P.

The Commonwealth has summoned about twenty witnesses, and the testimony for the prosteuding is to progress. The counsel for the accused are Meisra.

Dan, Grimsley, Jas. Birbour, C. Gibson and A. Bell of Culpeper, and L. L. Lawis of Richmond, and ---- Ashby of Washington. The Commonwealth is represented by G. D. Gray and J. L. Jeffreys.
There was a large crowd in attendance, and good deal of excitement is manifested.

Sceretary Sherman. CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 29 .- Sceratory Sherman stated to a reporter of the Commercial, in regard to the charges published that he had appointed Confederate soldiers and his own relatives to office, that the charges were false. Referring to the names mentioned, le said : Pitney was in office when he became Scoretary. D. W. Wilson was neither a relative by alood or marriage. He was a captain in the Union army, and was an efficient officer. Frank Bernard, while a clerk in the Treasury Depart ment, married Alies Bartley, a nices of Score tary Sherman's. He did not dismiss Bernard afair way to success. Twenty five chambers of on that account. Roger Sherman Bernard commerce in France, including those at Paris, held no effice, as charged. Mr. Leopold, who Lyons, Bordeaux and Marseilles have vote married a distant relative of the Secretary, was as pointed commissioner of the Freedmen's Bank by Gen. Grant. His nephew, John Sherman, Jr., who was appointed by Gen. Grant marshal of New Mexico, receives a salary of about $1,000. As for carriages and forage, the Secretary was able to pay for his own carriage and furnish his own forage, which he does. The Secretary stated emphatically siver upon the commercial interests of Great that he had never appointed a relative of his, Britaie, and to crasider what, if any, legislative action is desirable thereon.

Price of Coal.

Mr. Hathaway, editor of a republican paper at Norfolk, Va., was appointed night inspector, upon the recommendation of the collector of customs at that place. As to Col. Mosby and the other persons named, the Secretary was in to-morrow. The harbor prices will 6130 be reduced as follow: Lump, steamboat and broken. $3; egg. $3.25; stove. $3.35; chesnut. The secretary voted for, believed in, and had uniformly acted up to the law giving the preference of appointment, other things being special acceptance of appointment, other things being equal, to Union soldiers. No Union soldiers had been discharged by him except for good cause shown upon the record or for the lac's of an appropriation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29 .- The Cuargo d'Affairs of Peru says no credit should be given to the in timation that that country is rectniting its forces by the employment of cannibal savages to be armed with poisoned arrows. He doesns it almost idle to contradic; the report. The hu mane manner in which Peru has carried on the war, and her treatment of the prisoners made by her which has been characterized by the Chilian government itself as courteous, delicate and generous, is sufficient uvidence that she would not employ any such means of warfare. Furthermore Peru is not recruiting at all, the government at Lima having issued a circular to the prefects of the various departments that no more troops are needed.

The Lindon Times has hed 21 actions for libel brought against it since 1872. In 14 cases the paintiffs absoloned the action before trial, and in 4 recovered and demands. In these 18 the plaintiffs abandoned the action before trial, and in 4 recovered no damages. In these 18 sctions the expenses of the Times amounted to £3,200, and only £130 was recovered.
